

Grandstream GXW-4024 Analog FXS Gateway

Product Name: Grandstream GXW-4024 Analog FXS Gateway

Manufacturer: -

Model Number: GXW4024

Please Note: The Grandstream GXW-4024 is End of Life. For an alternative, we highly recommend the Grandstream GXW4224.

The GXW4024 is a high density SIP based analog telephone VoIP gateway that is fully interoperable with leading IP-PBX and Softswitch systems. It features 24 telephone ports, rich telephony functionalities, superb voice quality, easy provisioning, flexible dial plans and advanced security protection. The GXW4024 gateway enables small to medium sized businesses to create a cost-effective hybrid IP and analog telephone system - thus enjoy the benefits of VoIP communications while preserving investment on existing analog phones and traditional PBX systems.

The GXW FXS series, comes in three different port configurations: 4 port , 8 port , and 24 port.

Main Benefits:

- Simple and flexible configuration options as a VoIP-FXS Gateway
- IP enabler for analogue phones, faxes and legacy PBX systems
- Secure and easy management using Web browser, automated provisioning tools, and integrated IVR
- High quality voice and fax communication with significant cost savings

Features

- 24 FXS ports with PSTN lifeline
- One 10M/100Mbps network port
- Multiple SIP server profiles (2 per system) and independent account per port
- Supports audio codecs: G.711, G.723, G.726, G.729 A/B/E, iLBC
- T.38 Fax
- G.168 Echo Cancellation

Please Enquire